Re: Complaint for Willful Failure and Refusal to File the Required Campaign Financial Disclosure Forms Disclosing the True Source of Contributions & Expenses Against William Gregg Imus and his Imus for Congress (FEC ID#C00498311) Committee.

To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to file a formal complaint against William Gregg Imus and his Imus for Congress committee (FEC ID# C00498311), PO Box 308, Blue Jay, California, 92317-0308.

Imus is an experienced politician who is well aware of campaign disclosure laws. This is demonstrated by his past political experience including serving as campaign manager for California Assemblyman Tim Donnelly during his 2010 campaign for California State Assembly; having served as Donnelly's Chief of Staff for his State Assembly District; and having managed his own federal campaign for Congress beginning in or about July 2011.

Despite Imus' political experience, he failed to file the required Pre-Primary campaign disclosure report covering the period April 1, 2012 through May 16, 2012; and when he was notified of this failure continues to refuse to file the requisite report through and including to date.

On or about May 25, 2012 Imus was notified by the Federal Election Commission's Reports Analysis Division that he failed to file the required Pre-Primary report of receipts and expenditures. This notice allowed Imus four (4) additional business days within which to file the report to avoid publication. A copy of this notice is attached as "Attachment A".

Despite the notice, Imus his committee continued to refuse to disclose the true sources and amounts of their funds and expenditures. In fact, Imus has hidden the true source of his contributions and amounts of his expenditures since April 1, 2012.

Additionally, federal election law requires filing of 48-hour notices during the 20-day period immediately prior to the election. Imus his committee never filed any of these reports. It is not known whether any 48-hour notices were required because Imus and his committee continue to fail to file any campaign disclosure reports.

Imus' failure and subsequent refusal to file the required reports has deprived the public, the voters, and taxpayers of potentially valuable knowledge about his candidacy and character.

Therefore, we request the Federal Elections Commission investigate this matter and take whatever action(s) are necessary and proper to assure Mr. Imus and his committee comply with the laws of our country.

I declare, under penalty of perjury, that the information contained in this complaint is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
